

07. Family Support

One night, Ted is working on a problem set for school. He has been stuck for the last question for a while.

He looks through example questions in the textbook but still cannot figure out the answer. The agent detects Ted's frustration and asks him if he wants help from his brother. Ted hesitates, but agrees.

The agent lets Charlie, Ted's older brother, know that Ted needs help.

