

17. Outdoor Games

The Wright family is hosting a family party and invited their relatives over.

The kids decide to play a badminton tournament while dinner is being prepared, and divide themselves into teams.

The kids ask the agent to be the referee of the game.

While the agent keeps track of the scores for both sides, it also cheers for the team that is currently losing.