

13. Groceries

Dante and Alex were about to prepare dinner, when they realized they did not pick up the groceries from the store.

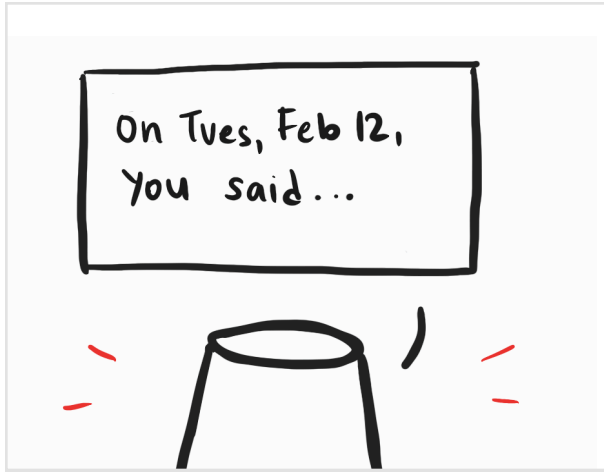

Confused, they begin fighting over whose turn it was to pick them up.

Dante asks The Agent to scroll through his and Alex's texts to identify one that indicates who said they would pick up the groceries.

The Agent looks through the texts between Dante and Alex.

Finally, it identifies one from Dante that says, "I will get the groceries this week."
